Cambridge Mineral Resources Plc (“CMR” or “the Company”)

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTOR

Cambridge Mineral Resources Plc, the mining exploration and development company, is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Mark Slater as Director.

Mr Slater has over 30 years of experience in business acquisition, management and development across various commercial sectors including logistics and transport. In recent years he has been involved in commercial restructuring of companies. Mr Slater originally joined Cambridge in 2009 and has been involved in all aspects of the company’s mineral interests.

Geoffrey Hall, Chairman of Cambridge Mineral Resources Plc, commented:

“CMR is planning to re-acquire Recursos Metalicos SL from Iberian Gold Plc, and in order to progress this, the board has been expanded and strengthened by the addition of Tim Greatrex and myself earlier in 2012. To achieve full benefits from this acquisition, Mark Slater, who has extensive knowledge of CMR’s mineral interests and has been working as a consultant to the Company since the AGM in December 2011, has agreed to rejoin the management team”.
